

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Abundant Energy, LLC. Adds Another Key Member to Its Team

Vernon, Texas - October 29, 2011

David Pyles of Vernon, Texas, is joining the company as Manager of Electronics and Controls, providing instrumentation and computer programming for our renewable energy solutions. Initially, Pyles will split time between the site of our first commercial wind generator in Clovis, New Mexico, and our principal manufacturing facility ramping up in Vernon, Texas.

Austin, Texas-based Abundant Energy, LLC. is a renewable energy company focused on the design, manufacture and deployment of innovative, reliable, clean energy technologies. Abundant Energy's mid-sized, vertical-axis wind turbines are designed to reduce energy costs for municipal and industrial customers by generating power directly on the distribution side of the energy grid.
